

CHRISTINA WARMBRUNN

PROGRAM MANAGER

EXPERIENCE

Program Manager

Rocket Companies

Detroit, MI

December 2019 - Present

Responsible for the continued success and implementation of Hack Week, our quarterly internal innovation program for 2,000+ Technology team members. Conduit between team members, senior leaders, external business partners, and internal stakeholders. Supervisor of all related workstreams for Hack Week and Catalyst Radio.

- Promoted in 10-month timeframe to Program Manager due to exceptional management of several high-impact programs and projects (e.g. Hack Week, Catalyst Radio, Tech Con, etc.) across the Rocket Companies reaching thousands of team members.
- Identified workflow tracking deficiencies and spearheaded new workflow tracking processes using Trello and Agile methodologies, optimizing team planning and execution. Resulted in a time savings of roughly 20-30 hours each month.
- Strategized ideas and acted as primary producer for Catalyst Radio, an innovation centered podcast, reaching 600-800+ team members each broadcast.
- Conceptualized and launched a "quick-start" Hack Week guide (Hack Pack) based on post-event feedback. This targeted new team members and leaders, providing clear expectations for participation, engagement, and post-event execution - reaching over 2,000 team members.
- One of two mentors in business area that won Urban Alliance's mentorship award in 2021. This award recognized outstanding commitment to youth and mentorship for students interested in pursuing STEM careers from marginalized backgrounds.
- Pitched and built new DEI focused strategies and one-off features to boost team member engagement and diversity innovation programming.

Various Internships

Rocket Companies

Detroit, MI

May 2019 - December 2019

Provided top-notch support for C-Suite and D&I teams. Collaborated with several business areas on D&I related initiatives including a pronoun feature, gender-inclusive menstruation products, and more. Effectively organized company-wide events and created communications for Trina Scott, Vice President of D&I at Quicken Loans (now Rocket Companies).

- Ideated and implemented Aunt Flow initiative in first two months of internship - bringing gender-inclusive menstruation products to Rocket Companies' downtown Detroit offices in 2019, set to launch in Q1 2021.
- Collaborated with Sift, our online workplace directory, to implement a pronoun feature to highlight our commitment to DEI strategies, launched in 2020.
- Propped out by C-suite leadership for dedication and passion for executing DEI focused projects and initiatives.
