

CHRISTINA WARMBRUNN

PROGRAM MANAGER

EXPERIENCE

Program Manager

Rocket Companies

Detroit, MI

December 2019 - Present

Responsible for the continued success and implementation of Hack Week, our internal innovation program for 2,000+ Technology team members. Conduit between team members, senior leaders, internal stakeholders, and external business partners. Supervisor of all related workstreams for Hack Week and Catalyst Radio.

- Was one of two mentors that led our team to win Urban Alliance's mentorship award in 2021. This award recognized our outstanding commitment to youth and mentorship for students interested in pursuing STEM careers from marginalized backgrounds.
- Promoted in ten-month timeframe from Associate Program Manager to Program Manager due to successful management of several high-impact programs and projects (e.g. Hack Week, Catalyst Radio, Tech Con, etc.).
- Frequently propped out by peers and leadership teams in performance reviews and meetings for acting one level higher than current role - able to manage multiple high priority and confidential projects in a short timeframe, fantastic collaborator, etc.

Various Internships

Rocket Companies

Detroit, MI

May 2019 - December 2019

Provided top-notch support for the C-Suite and D&I team. Collaborated with several business areas on D&I related initiatives and led projects including: a pronoun feature, gender-inclusive menstruation products, and more. Effectively organized company-wide events and created communications for Trina Scott, Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion at Quicken Loans (now Rocket Mortgage).

- Spearheaded Aunt Flow initiative led project initiation, execution and implementation - providing free menstruation products throughout the Rocket Companies' downtown Detroit buildings.
- Led collaborations with Sift, our online workplace directory, to implement a pronoun feature to highlight our commitment to DEI strategies.
- Propped out by C-suite leadership for dedication and passion for executing DEI focused projects and initiatives.

INTERESTS

- To keep my German sharp, I practice with my German relatives weekly. (I'm a dual citizen of the U.S. and Germany!)
- I'm a huge medievalist - I love examining medieval works from a contemporary perspective. Check out my work on The Public Medievalist!
